

“Anyone with even a vague interest in Britain and the Great War should read Shadow of War”

Celia Sandys, granddaughter of Winston Churchill

The Shadow of War

by Stewart Binns

A novel look at history

June 1914 - The beginning of another long, prosperous summer for Britain. But beneath the clear skies, all is not as it seems - as the chill wind of social discontent swirls around this sceptred isle. This is a story of love and comradeship, of hatred and tragedy - this is the story of the Great War.

Stewart Binns is a popular author and, in a 30-year career, has won over 30 international television programming awards, including a BAFTA, Peabody, Grierson and four Royal Television Society awards.
